Profile

I am a trained Illustrator and Storyboard artist. Having gained extensive theoretical and practical experience working in the Film and TV industry working in Art departments, I decided to change course and draw storyboards 8 years ago. I have extensive experience working as a storyboard artist, in Advertising predominantly but I have worked in TV and a bit of Film too.

My strengths lie in my Fine Art draftsmanship skills, a strong understanding of colour theory, proportion, layout design, graphics and composition as well as possessing a keen eye for detail.

I am a hard worker who works well under pressure and within a team environment and not afraid to take the initiative.
